Dear West Goshen Voters,

Voting is a privilege and a right, which is why it is important to vote in every election.

It may be tempting to skip voting in odd years, when the candidates don't get a lot of attention; however, these are the elections that sometimes influence us the most. We vote for the people who run our schools, townships, and courts. This year is especially important because we have three state Supreme Court justices who are up for retention. If they lose their retention vote, it could open our state up to Republican gerrymandering, like the scene unfolding in Texas.

Please make a plan to vote by mail or in person this November 4th.

Sincerely,

The West Goshen Democratic Committee
